Can You Answer ‘Yes’ To Any Of These Questions?

People decide to put a will in place for all kinds of reasons. If you can answer “yes” to any of these questions, it could be time for you to do the same.

If any of them apply to you, a will is the only way to ensure partners, children, other family members, friends and organisations receive a share of your assets.

Dying without a written instruction means you won’t have any control over who inherits from you. Instead of giving the right assets to the right people, the law will decide how your estate is passed on.

Even if you’re single with no dependents, not having a will means someone you would prefer not to benefit could receive some or all of your assets.

Working with My Blueprint Wills will help ensure your money, property and belongings are placed into the right hands.

Real Life Customer Stories From My Blueprint Wills

TONY AND ANN

“We already had a will but it needed updating. We wanted to understand how best to distribute the assets from our business to ensure the right things were going to the right people.

Going to the bank felt too impersonal and it was ridiculously expensive. Instead, My Blueprint Wills was recommended to us. When we met Catherine, she was so pleasant and professional we just had to use her.

Together, we considered how best to protect our assets with Catherine advising us on the most suitable and cost-effective options. Everything was explained in layman’s terms so we felt confident our wishes would be carried out. We would recommend Catherine without hesitation.”

GEMMA AND JONATHAN

“As a young, unmarried couple neither of us had a will in place. When our first child came along we wanted to make sure our new baby and our son from an earlier relationship would be looked after.

We were referred to Catherine and immediately liked her personal approach. She clearly explained what would happen if either or both of us died which gave us confidence that things would be taken care of quickly and efficiently.

Catherine’s personable, easy-going nature meant we felt completely in control. Now we have peace of mind knowing everyone will be provided for once we’re gone.”
