Santa Paws is Coming to town!

How do you celebrate Christmas with your cats? Christmas prep alone is like catnip in our house. Mine supervises unpacking the decorations and usually needs rescuing after she's tangled herself up in the fairy lights (a tradition since her first Noel). She's also territorial about the Christmas tree but, luckily, she's never toppled it - despite supervising bauble placement and regular spot checks to make sure everything is secured!

We all know Santa Paws has a list that he checks twice, so have your cats been naughty or nice this year? Of course, they can't help but be the BEST CAT EVER and would only ever be naughty by accident or if a bigger cat made them do it. So here are a few Christmas gift ideas for cats.

'Adventures in Meowtown' is a personalised picture book starring your cat! Look out for them among lavish illustrations and cameos from Pawdrey Hepburn, Cindy Clawford and many others!

These rosewood cat sushi treats look adorable and good enough to eat, but don't! Chunky and ideal for a cat to pounce on, they'll soon become a favourite toy.

So will this cute little bear because it's LOADED with catnip! Cats will love it, and you'll love seeing them play together.

Meow-about a personalised hamper full of treats for your little friend? Each gift box is hand-tied with a pretty ribbon and will make an ideal place for your keepsakes and mementoes long after Christmas.

Or why not go for a year's worth of gifting with a Gus & Bella gift box? Their brilliant subscription service sends you a themed box full of carefully chosen things for you and your cat to enjoy every month. You'll get 20% off your first month's box quoting CCMXMAS21, but you must sign up by midnight on Christmas Eve!
